

Mansfield, 4 Pill Road
Hook | Haverfordwest | SA62 4LU
OIEO: £480,000 | Freehold | EPC: E

Introducing this stunning five-bedroom detached family home in the sought-after village of Hook, offering expansive front and rear grounds. Ideally located near local village amenities, this property is perfect for family living.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a spacious entrance hallway. The lounge, featuring solid wooden flooring and a striking red brick fireplace with a log burner, sets a warm tone for the rest of the home. An additional sitting room provides further living space, while the expansive kitchen boasts solid wood units, integrated appliances, and a range cooker. The cloakroom and utility room enhance functionality, with integral access to the large double garage also available. The property comprises five double bedrooms, including a master with an en-suite shower room. Each bedroom is generously sized, making them ideal for family life. The well-presented bathroom meets all essential needs. The fifth bedroom, accessed via a private staircase, serves as an excellent guest retreat, with French doors opening to the rear and potential for a balcony overlooking the garden.

Externally, the property features an expansive private driveway accommodating multiple vehicles, wrapping around to the garage. The beautifully manicured front garden showcases a variety of trees, shrubs, and flowers, enhancing kerb appeal. The rear garden includes a landscaped patio area perfect for entertaining, a large lawned area, additional storage options, and a greenhouse.

Located just outside Haverfordwest, Hook offers proximity to educational and recreational amenities within the secondary school catchment area. The village boasts a local shop, social club, cricket field, park, and scenic walks. Haverfordwest, only six miles away, provides comprehensive amenities, while the renowned beaches of Broad Haven and the picturesque village of Little Haven on the Pembrokeshire coast are easily accessible.
